See below for additional notes and a photo of the materials

I really wanted to demonstrate the technique I use for these. It transfers to many patterns and materials. With these dubbings, the colors are pretty amazing and can be added in as accents.

The Carp dubbing is a different story. It comes with really fine rubber legs. I modify the dubbing and create a collar on the tan version. It's my take on an "Alfredo Conehead Shrimp"!

These have caught a lot of fish.
